

Prayer and Praise – January 29, 2025

“Come to me, all who labor and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest.”

Matthew 11:28 (ESV)

Ghana/Liberia: Missionary Rich Kopp asks us to please pray for him. He began a new treatment yesterday, January 27. The treatment is at the Colorado Blood Cancer Institute and it will be for the next four to six weeks. He and his wife Patti, will be moving temporarily to Denver, Colorado to receive his treatment. Please pray that God will move in a supernatural way and that the treatment will be successful in the mighty name of Jesus.

MOVE: MOVE Director Aaron Keller and the team of men continue their work in Guapiles, Cost Rica. They have another full week of hard work there. The weather has not been what they expected which has made their work more difficult. Please continue to pray for everyone's safety, good health, motivation, strength and spiritual unity as they work hard to finish this project on time.

This week missionaries Nelson and Tirsia Gaitan were invited by MOVE to join them in Costa Rica. They will get to meet with pastors and share about their mission. The Gaitans will also be preaching during the week in Guapiles. Please pray for them as they meet with the Costa Rica National Board and for their safe travel as they go back home to Nicaragua on Friday.

Liberia: Missionary Jessica Welch shared: “I had the opportunity to get back into teaching mode! One of our teachers was absent, so I had the privilege of completing the reading lessons. What true joy it brings to my heart to see these children learning to read for the first time. This is Amos, a boy with an amazing imagination. It's not very often that I come across a Liberian child who is able to replay in their mind the movie of what they are reading, especially new readers, but this young man can really do it, and with enthusiasm. It was so much fun being his teacher for a day.”

Argentina: Field Director Hector Villegas requests prayer for the National Convention of Open Bible Churches in Argentina being held January 28-February 1, 2025. During this convention the national board members election will take place. Please pray for God’s direction and blessing for this convention.
