

Prayer and Praise – May 29, 2024

“This is what the LORD says to you: ‘Do not be afraid or discouraged because of this vast army. For the battle is not yours, but God’s.’” 2 Chronicles 20:15 (NIV)

Liberia: Missionaries Drew and Jessica Welch praise God for all the children who have successfully completed their 100th reading lesson. This is a very important event because the children have worked very hard to achieve success. When Legacy Learning Center students complete the lessons, they earn their own Bible.

Nicaragua: Missionaries Nelson and Tirsia are happy to share about the INSTE class that is taking place. There are a total of 12 students taking the INSTE 1 class. Please pray that God will open their minds and hearts for understanding as they are the next generations of leaders.

Ukraine: Missionary Tammy Swailes and Field Director Oleksandr Rudynets ask to pray for strength and encouragement in Ukraine. Please continue to pray for peace in the nation soon, but also for healing throughout Ukraine. Pray for the brokenhearted, those who feel no hope and restoration of lives. Please pray for President Volodymyr Zelenskyy and the soldiers as Ukraine suffers from a weapons shortage. May they be like David who fought against the giant and may they not be discouraged and know that Almighty God is with them.

Worldwide: Please pray for all families who have been affected by weather events and for everyone's protection during this tornado and rain season. For those who have lost loved ones and for those who have lost everything, may they find comfort and faith in God.

Please pray for the families of Davy and Natalie Lloyd, an American missionary couple, and Pastor Jude Montis from Haiti whose lives were taken by gang members on Thursday. The three worked for a mission organization that runs an orphanage for 450 children and two churches and is run by Davy's father. Pray for the protection of all missionaries around the world and all other organizations as they bring God's Word to many nations.

“Blessed are those who are persecuted for righteousness' sake, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.” Matthew 5:10 (ESV)
