

Prayer and Praise – July 9, 2025

"For you yourselves are fully aware that the day of the Lord will come like a thief in the night."

1 Thessalonians 5:2 (ESV)

Ukraine: Missionary Tammy Swailes shared, "A little over a week ago, I was in Cyprus to celebrate with a group of students the completion of their first year of Inste studies. Listening to how God worked in their lives throughout the two courses reminded me why I love discipleship so much! Please continue to pray for the translation process as these books are in the final review and revision stages in the Greek language."

"On another note, Andrii, who is part of our Greek language translation team in Cyprus, is currently recovering from a broken ankle, while her husband has recently been diagnosed with esophageal cancer. Please pray for their complete healing."

United States: Please pray for the state of Texas. On July 4th, what was supposed to be a celebration turned into a tragedy for many in Kerrville, Texas, Kerr County. A massive flood occurred in that central part of Texas, with the Guadalupe River flooding the entire area. Many people have been rescued, but many lives have been lost and many are still missing. As of Tuesday, July 8th, the death toll is up to 109, including 30 children, not including the many missing people. Please pray for all the people who are alive waiting to be found and rescued, for those who have lost their lives to be found to give closure to families, and for God's comfort for those who have lost loved ones.

Missionaries: Some missionaries are currently itinerating throughout the United States and others have returned to the field to lead mission teams. Please pray for all of our missionaries, asking God to provide them with everything they need to spread His Word around the world. Pray for their safety, health, strength and for God's guidance in all of their endeavors.
