Prayer and Praise – September 10, 2025

“Let us not become weary in doing good, for at the proper time we will reap a harvest if we do not give up.”

Galatians 6:9 (NIV)

Northern Mexico: Last Wednesday, Missionary Fayth McConnell traveled to Seda, Arizona, to attend church and stay overnight at a friend's house. After church, she had a bad fall on the pavement. She suffered a head injury and was bleeding, had difficulty breathing, stomach pain, and couldn't move. The fall knocked the wind out of her, and she was transported to the hospital by ambulance, where she stayed overnight.

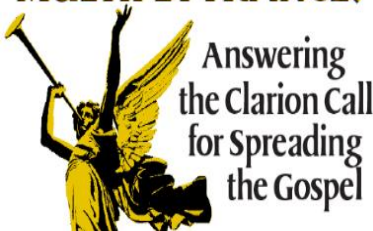

Doctors were concerned about the possibility of a brain bleed due to an open cut on her forehead. Fayth received stitches, underwent a full-body scan, blood work, and other tests. Thankfully, she did not have any broken bones, and there was no sign of bleeding in her brain. Praise God for protecting her during the incident and please keep Fayth in your prayers as she recovers from aches caused by the fall.

Cuba: Mission Esperanza has started its first project in Cuba, collaborating with a team of 12 Cuban men on various building projects. The main goal is to train these men to construct churches. Despite the rain, the foundation has been successfully poured, and another team will be returning to Cuba on September 24 to continue the work. Please pray for favorable weather throughout the construction process and for grace and favor from the local government.

IGBC (Inste Global Bible College): The President of Inste Global Bible College, Dr. Tina Luther and her husband, Jeremy are moving from Oregon to Des Moines, Iowa this week. Their plan is to arrive in Des Moines on Friday, September 12th. Please pray for a safe trip for both of them.

Missionary Itinerations: Please pray for the upcoming missionary itinerations this fall for the following missionaries: Burlyss Parker will be itinerating in the Oregon and Washington districts. Brent and Sara Kelderman will be itinerating in the California districts. Zac Anderson will be itinerating in the Open Bible East Region and Nelson and Tirsia Gaitan will be itinerating in the Southeast Region. Pray for the Lord's anointing and provision for all of these servants of God as they visit with our pastors and churches of Open Bible all across the country.
