GLOBAL MISSIONS

Prayer and Praise – October 08, 2025

“The Lord sets prisoners free.”

Psalm 146:7 (NIV)

Cambodia: Missionary Ly Mak praises to God for the wonderful opportunities He provides to help children learn and get them to know Jesus through education. The principal of Lifesong Learning School invited all parents to a meeting to share experiences and provide recommendations to strengthen students' studies both at school and at home. He also emphasized the benefits of having adequate learning materials. Please continue to pray for all the parents of the children who attend Lifesong Learning Center, that they may better understand the importance of their children's education and have the opportunity to know Christ through them. Additionally, please keep the staff and children in your prayers.

Northern Mexico: Missionary Fayth McConnell expresses her gratitude to everyone who prayed for her and continues to do so. She shares that she is feeling better and back to her normal self after the fall she experienced almost a month ago. She also praises God for the Springfield, Oregon team that was hosted by her and missionary Del Brown the weekend.

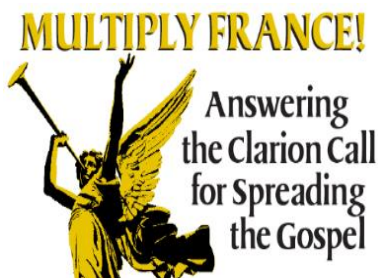

Pastor Victor Chavez from Nogales has planted 19 churches since establishing the church “Comunidad Hermanos y Amigos” which was built by Pastor Kirk Stickler's church twenty-five years ago through “God is on the Move”. This past Sunday, they celebrated 25 years of ministry, and the Springfield team had the privilege of attending the service with Pastor Kirk Stickler as one of the guest speakers. It was truly a wonderful time!

Ghana: Missionary Rich Kopp and Rev. Nick Mahabir will be in Ghana over the next two weeks leading the next session of the Church Planting Academy. Please pray for all the candidates who have registered for these classes and pray for God's direction for the next church plants for Open Bible Churches of Ghana.

Global Mission's Meeting: Next week, the Global Missions board will meet and there will also be a special meeting with seven young people representing all five regions of Open Bible Churches. Pray that the Lord guides and directs all these meetings as the Department of Global Missions continues to reach more people with the Gospel and open missions in more countries.

Due to the Global Missions Board meeting next week, there will be no Prayer and Praise email sent out. Thank you for partnering with us in prayer for these meetings!

Please share with your congregation or with other interested individuals. Thank you for praying and caring.
